LEARNING INTENTION:

- * Continue populating Ahau programme.
- * Tips on researching tupuna histories.
- * Using Google.
- *

KEY COMPETENCIES:

- * Building confidence in learning new programmes.
- * Self-management.
- * Participation and contribution.

ACTIVITIES

1. Ahau continued – discuss any issues and reflect on the process. What did you learn about the programme? What did you learn about your whānau?
2. Researching tupuna/ancestor histories – korero from professional researcher, Dr Lily George.
3. Using Google – basic search techniques.

4. Websites with useful tupuna information:

- <https://teara.govt.nz/en/biographies> [Note you can search either within the biographies or directly within the Te Ara website]
- <https://natlib.govt.nz/> [many photos of tupuna here too!]

Start collecting information on one particular tupuna, including photos. One of your tasks will be to write a short biography of that tupuna to upload to your portfolio.

HOMEWORK

Keep working on your Ahau programme. Compile information on a particular tupuna from internet searches to start a short biography – ask your parents/grandparents if they know about that tupuna.

NEXT WEEK

Ahau programme
Tupuna biographies
Video techniques – special guest!

For extra support, one of our team will be available via Zoom on Sundays from 6pm to 9pm.

Email Lily on dreamweaversresearch@gmail.com for Zoom details. You will need to provide an email address – check with your parents/caregivers if you can use your own email address or theirs.
